STATE FARMERS' INSTITUTE

Splendid Program Has Been Prepared For Meeting at Frankfort, Including Famous Lecturers.

To the Farmers of Kentucky: You are hereby notified that the State Farmers' Institute as provided for by law is called to assemble at Frankfort, February 27, 28 and 29.

All delegates will be duly notified through this office but this notice is sent to the public in order that all farmers, irrespective of whether delegates or not are cordially invited and will be accorded the privileges of the floor and are in fact urged to be present at this meeting, as it is understood by your Commissioner, the law does not contemplate that just one person from each county should attend this meeting, but that all persons interested in the development of the agricultural resources of the state who desire to attend should be given the opportunity and the invitation to come to this meeting.

Women are especially invited and February 28 will be in great measure, "Ladies' Day." Some of the best lecturers on "Household Economics," "Home Improvement" and "Women's Place in Agriculture" have been secured and particular attention will be given to interesting the women of Kentucky in the improvement of home conditions especially in the rural districts.

Low railroad rates are expected. A good program has been provided for this Institute. The General Assembly is in session. The State Capitol is always interesting and it is hoped that this meeting will be the largest gathering of farmers ever held in the borders of the state.

Any information desired further will be cheerfully given by addressing:

CIVIL SERVICE BOARD IS AFTER KENTUCKIANS

Complaints of Activity of Office Holders Filed With Commission by Combs and Perry.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Alexander H. Revell, chairman of the National Roosevelt Committee, Tuesday night said that he had received a letter from General John C. Black, president of the Federal Civil Commission stating that the alleged political activity of government employees in Kentucky and other Southern States, was being investigated by the commission. Mr. Revell said the complaints were filed by him.

The complaints filed by Revell were directed at numerous federal officials, postmasters and minor employees in a number of Southern States, who were reported as active in the campaign for the nomination of President Taft. Complaints also were filed by Leslie Combs, of Lexington, Ky., and W. J. Perry, of Frankfort, Ky.

In Black's letter to Revell it was stated that the Civil Service Commission will be unable to reach many federal officials, who are said to be politically active, because they are outside its jurisdiction. This applies to revenue collectors and such postmasters and other officials as are appointed by the President. Hundred of minor employees, however, are under the jurisdiction of the commission.

MACON TO BE CITY BEAUTIFUL

Government Sends Big Shipment of Hardy and Early Blooming Flowers, Which Are Being Distributed.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 21.—The city of Macon will resemble a veritable flower garden when the reunion takes place in May next, if the plans of the City Beautiful Committee are carried out with the work of the Ladies Auxiliary. The city is laid out in districts and a lady appointed for each, whose duties shall be to see that her district is as beautiful as it can be made. The ladies are also making a report of all places that need the attention of the city Government in getting the city in perfect sanitary condition. Mr. Cecil Morgan has received from the United States Government a big shipment of hardy and early blooming flower seed, and these are being distributed to those who will plant same.

SCHOEBERTH MAKES HOT ANSWER TO CANTRILL

Defeated Candidate for Speaker Brands Charges of the Congressman Against Him as "Unqualifiedly False."

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 21.—Branding as absolutely false every allegation made in the statement of J. Campbell Cantrill, published in The Courier-Journal Monday, so far as it related to himself, Representative Harry A. Schoberth, of Woodford county Tuesday night made public a statement addressed to the Democrats of the Seventh Congressional District, in which Mr. Schoberth declares that there was not a line in anything he has written to Mr. Cantrill that would make it improper for him now to become a candidate for Congress.

Mr. Schoberth says that what he really said to Mr. Cantrill was in no sense a pledge to stay out of the race and demands the publication of every line he has written to Mr. Cantrill, declaring at the same time that the public will know how to take Mr. Cantrill's failure to publish the letters he says he has from the Woodford legislator.

Mr. Schoberth's Reply

Mr. Schoberth's answer to Mr. Cantrill follows:

"To the Democrats of the Seventh District:
"The Courier-Journal of Monday contains a card from Mr. J. Campbell Cantrill attacking me in the most abusive manner. He charges that I am an ingrate, that I broke my word to him, that I will not support him if he is nominated, that I have contemptibly tucked to and am the tool of those who defeated me in the Speakership race, and that he has letters from me which, if published, would place me in a bad light."

"Each and every allegation made by Mr. Cantrill is absolutely false. "In my race for the Speakership I received the support of the gentleman from Scott county, who is Mr. Cantrill's friend, and, as I believe, my friend. I appreciated this as I appreciated all the support I received. Mr. Cantrill wrote to me offering his support. In reply to his letters I thanked him and told him I would be glad to receive it."

"Not a line was written by me which would make it improper for me, as an honorable gentleman, to oppose Mr. Cantrill for the Democratic nomination for Congress. Nothing was done in my race by Mr. Cantrill, which laid upon me the obligation not to oppose him, as he admitted to me in person some days before my announcement. The relations between Mr. Cantrill and myself have never been more than courteous, polite and formal."

Grave Charge Not Met

"If there is any man in the Ashland district who knows Mr. Cantrill personally, and who knows me personally, who prefers his word to mine, I would not care to change that man, or to try for his support. "The Democrats of this district don't care who favored or fought me in the race for Speakership. It is inconsequential matter to them in answer to Mr. Cantrill's letter, I thanked him for his proffered support. The sole issue is which of us will most truly represent them in Congress."

"In the primary two years ago grave and serious charges were made against Mr. Cantrill. He very plausibly secured a suspension of judgment in order that he might have time to prove them untrue. Nearly two years have gone and yet Mr. Cantrill has never sought to exonerate himself of these charges either before the party authorities or in a court of justice. This is the main and all-important issue. He is still resting under these charges and he must meet them. I do not propose to permit him to escape them."

"H. A. SCHOEBERTH."

this regard, and told Mr. Cantrill I would be a candidate in the district led me to believe I could defeat him for the nomination.

"Mr. Cantrill stated that I was clearly within my rights in so doing, and we parted with the distinct understanding that I wanted to make the race, if I felt assured of success. I have come to that conclusion, am an announced candidate, and have already received sufficient assurance to give me absolute confidence of my success. Mr. Cantrill's card has a ring which suggests that he agrees with me in that conclusion, and is unquestionably the cry of a demagogue and the wail of one who sees defeat in the handwriting on the wall."

What He Said No Pledge

"What I said was in no sense a pledge and could not have been so taken by him because I positively told him I intended to beat him if I could. If, however, this charge were true, Mr. Cantrill would resemble Satan rebuking sin, for in making the race two years ago he violated his most unequivocal and sacred pledge given in writing to Mr. Claude M. Thomas. As Mr. Cantrill so truly says, 'the man who will throw down his friends is not worthy of a public trust; the man who will deceive his friends will deceive the people.'"

Those Letters Cantrill Has

"Mr. Cantrill says he has letters. I demand the publication of every one Mr. Cantrill has received from me, and that the original copies be lodged with some reputable newspaper. If he fails or refuses to do this the public will know well what to think."

"I never stated to Mr. Cantrill that Hon. W. O. Davis and The Woodford Sun's editors had been my bitter enemies in the Speakership race and that they had helped in my defeat. All three of these gentlemen are my lifelong personal friends. More than this, Mr. Davis was my constant adviser in that fight. Later, when the district committee met, Mr. Davis appeared before that honorable body, as the Woodford county member thereof, stated I was a prospective candidate and asked that the date of the primary be fixed at a time when I could make the race without neglecting my duties as the Representative of Woodford county in the Lower House of Kentucky's General Assembly. His every appeal in this particular was met with the vigorous opposition of Mr. Cantrill."

Assured Charges Were Untrue

"When he defeated Hon. Claude M. Thomas for the nomination two years ago, upon his assurance that the grave charges under which he rested were untrue and would be shown so to be, I used every personal endeavor to bring out the largest Democratic vote I could for him as the Democratic nominee in the regular election in my county where he was very weak."

"I, therefore, did not suppose that when I was making the race for the Speakership I was irretrievably committing myself to Mr. Cantrill's candidacy for Congress, simply because I did not refuse the support of my colleague from Scott who resides in the same Congressional, Senatorial and Judicial district as myself."

"In conversation with Mr. Cantrill just after my defeat for Speaker I said that I did not expect to make the race for Congress in the 16th of March primary. Later, however, something like two or three ago, in a conversation with him in Frankfort, in response to a question by him, I explained my attitude in

RAILROAD MUST PAY BURLEY LOSS BY FIRE

Court of Appeals Decides That L. & N. Must "Ante" For $40,000 Damage at Millersburg.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 21.—The Burley Tobacco Society won a victory in the Court of Appeals Tuesday when the court upheld the Bourbon Circuit Court in awarding the society $40,000 damages against the L. & N. Railroad for the destruction by fire of two warehouses located at Millersburg, Ky. The fire was the result of sparks thrown from a passing engine and 352 hogsheads of tobacco were destroyed.

The warehouses were under the control of the Burley Tobacco Society and the Bourbon County Board of Control. The railroad company contended the suit on the grounds that the society was an illegal trust or combine and without authority of law to prosecute the suit. The court here holds that the action was perfect in the Burley Society and the Bourbon Board of Control and it was immaterial whose particular crops went to make up the tobacco burned.

The court further says that it has repeatedly held that the Burley Society is not operated in violation of law so long as it does not attempt to raise the price of leaf tobacco above the real value. The court says that it has been unable to find any authority which provides that the property of a trust could be negligently destroyed without redress.

MRS. GEORGIA WRIGHT IS

STILL IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 21.—Mrs. Georgia Wright, of Paris, who was stricken on the streets of Lexington Monday morning with apoplexy and was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, was said to be still in a critical condition early Tuesday morning. Her entire left side is paralyzed.

SENATOR BYRON SPEAKS FOR POOL HERE MONDAY

Boosters of Ten-Year Contract of The Burley Tobacco Society Will Get Busy Next Week.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 21.—The whirlwind campaign of the Burley Tobacco Society in the interest of the ten-year pool, according to announcement by officials at headquarters here Tuesday, will be presented with vigor from now until March 1, the date of closing.

Saturday of this week there will be meetings in Lexington, Mt. Sterling and Owensboro and Monday afternoon will be held in Frankfort, Springfield, Bedford, Versailles, Louisville and Winchester.

At ten Fayette county mass meetings which will be held at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the courthouse, Senator W. A. Bryon, of Brooksville, Mr. C. C. Patrick and Mr. Charles H. Berryman will speak. Mr. Berryman will also speak at Cynthia Monday. Mr. J. D. Clark will speak at Mt. Sterling Saturday afternoon, after the sale at the opening of the Burley Society's new lease leaf warehouse there. Mr. John W. Hall, of the Burley Society office force in Lexington, will supervise the sale at Mt. Sterling, which will be conducted by County Chairman Asa Bean and others in the Montgomery capital.

Senator Bryon at Winchester

Senator Bryon will be heard at Winchester Monday. Vice President Ferguson on the same day will conduct the mass meeting at Versailles. President LeBus will be in charge of the meeting at Owenton Saturday and the one at Flepingsburg Monday. Meetings will be held in every county in the Burley district next Thursday, February 29, at which the last appeal will be made to growers to sign the ten-year pooling pledge. President LeBus Tuesday sent out the following official letter to county chairmen announcing the final "round-up" meeting.

Letter to County Chairmen.

"Dear Sir—We think it very important that each county chairman advertise a mass meeting of tobacco growers to be held in his county on Thursday, February 29, being the last day of February, for the purpose of securing as many signatures as possible to the ten-year pooling contract."

"Monday at Georgetown, Lawrenceburg, Nicholasville and Mt. Sterling, they signed at court day meetings a total acreage of about 9,000, which was certainly very gratifying."

"We have several meetings advertised for next Saturday and the following Monday, and then by having meetings in each county on February 29, what might be called a "round-up" meeting, we have every reason to believe that the ten-year pool will prove a great success. Yours truly, "BURLEY TOBACCO SOCIETY, "CLARENCE LEBUS, President."

MISSOURI DELEGATES FOR CLARK SELECTED

"Gag Rule" Cry of Candidate For Governorship Fails to Affect Stated Program.

Joplin, Mo., Feb. 21.—After an all afternoon fight on the floor of the convention, caused by the effort of David A. Ball, of Bowling Green, a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, to oppose the slate agreed on by party leaders, the Democratic State Convention late Tuesday elected eight delegates at large to the Baltimore convention, each with half a vote.

Ball's fight to stop what he termed "gag rule and Cannonism," was unsuccessful and the prearranged program went through. The make-up of the delegation at large follows:

United States Senator William J. Stone, United States Senator James A. Reed, former Governor A. M. Dockery, of Gallatin, Lon M. Stephens, of St. Louis, and David R. Francis, of St. Louis, William T. Kemper, of Kansas City, Gilbert S. Barbar, of Joplin, and Judge Virgil Rule, of St. Louis.

The delegation was instructed to vote for Champ Clarke for President on every ballot taken before the Baltimore convention.

Edward F. Goltra, of St. Louis, was re-elected by acclamation as National Committeeman from Missouri. In a speech accepting the nomination Mr. Goltra pledged his allegiance to Clark's candidacy.

CONSIGNMENTS OF POTATOES

Are Expected to Arrive in New York Soon, Bringing Total Receipts Up to a Million Sacks.

New York, Feb. 21.—Six large consignments of potatoes are expected to arrive in New York from abroad during the next two days, bringing the total receipts for the season up to a million sacks. The duty on the entire quantity will foot up to nearly $700,000.

Imports will decrease from now on, as Germany and France are both buying heavily in Ireland and England. This is the first year that America has gone abroad for potatoes since 1908.

In the United States growers raise about seventy-five bushels of potatoes to the acre, while in England and Ireland the crops run from 200 to 235 bushels to the acre.

DR. AKED'S TROUSERS.

The reverend Dr. Aked, not long imported from England by Mr. Rockefeller, and since removed to San Francisco, has gone through a trying experience. During the quiet hours of the night, when oblivion scatters her poppies, an enemy came gleaming in the vineyard, so to speak. Like the good bishop of Hugo's story, Brother Aked put not his trust in bolts and bars. Unlike the bishop, when he awoke he found missing, not the silver candlesticks, but the only twelve pairs of trousers he owned in the world.

The natural sympathies of the human heart flow out to the reverend Mr. Aked in this dilemma. To many mortals one-twelfth his total loss would reduce him to dire straits.
He is not in their class. That he should have possessed this seemingly redundant supply of trousers marks him no ordinary person. Rather it proves him not a person, but a personage.

But what shall be said of the pur-lione of these necessary habita-ments? By one wanton act, he has shown himself a low-browed ruffian, callous to every finer sensibility. A gentlemanly Raffles would not have taken them all, however attractive the pattern or impeccable the crease.
Only a criminal of the deepest dye
could have perpetrated the villainy.
Unless, indeed it be an act of retribu-tive justice meted out by a Pacific Coast humorist, in whose breast a sense of right struggled with a lust for vengeance. For the reverend doctor has in the past been cutting severe in his strictures on American humor, having gone so far as to declare there is no such thing.

If the final guess should prove correct, Dr. Aked must be irreversibly settled in his original convictions by now. There remain to him, however, the precepts of philosophy, if not the consolation of religion. Nor without comfort, therefore, may be the well-worn narrative of the individual who retired to bed while his only pair of trousers were being washed; and who, when told by his wife next morning that the calf had chewed them up, exclaimed with pious resignation, "Them that has must lose."

CASCARETS FOR A SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Gently But Thoroughly Cleanse And Regulate Your Stomach, Liver And Bowels While You Sleep

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases, that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means indigestion; a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they cure indigestion, because they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever. A Casca-ret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND

FOR ALL COUGHS AND COLDS FOR CHILDREN AND GROWN PERSONS

Most effective with Croup and Whooping Cough
FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND
is quick and reliable. It stops the cough by promptly healing the cause.
Contains no opiates. Is indispensable in a family where there are children.

ST. JOSEPH, MICH.
Mrs. Frank Marti, 417 Church St., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound saved the life of our baby boy. He contracted a severe bronchial trouble and coughed violently and had spells of coughing and gagging and turned black in the face. I always had great faith in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and started giving it to the child. In a short time he was relieved and finally the cough was entirely stopped and the coughing and gagging spells ceased bothering him. He got well in a short time, gaining in weight and getting robust. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us trouble and this with the wonderful cure in baby's case shows its great merit. We are never without Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. We always keep it in the house."

CINCINNATI'S GREAT AUTOMOBILE SHOW

No Fewer Than 1,000 Persons Are Turned Away From Doors on Opening Night.

Cincinnati's great automobile show opened Monday night, February 19, with a rush of visitors that made it necessary to turn away no fewer than 1,000 persons. No such attendance, interest and enthusiasm have ever before been evident at any public event held in the Queen City.

Out-of-town visitors were generous with their presence, West Virginia leading off with the largest number, with Kentucky a good second.

On all sides it was granted that no exaggeration had been spoken in describing the decorations as superb and the motor car displays as one seldom equalled.

That racing wonder, the Marmox "Wasp," was a strong magnet to every observer, its grace of lines being particularly admired.

Delight was expressed at the variety of brilliant colorings offered in the newer car bodies, tendency leaning toward the pure white, bright red, soft olive and rich green. One machine radiant in delicate robin's egg blue, was voted truly magnificent.

An electric coupe, with body entirely ivory, flashed off by platings of gold in every part of the machine, showing even the smallest part of metal, was positively startling in effect.

Wednesday is to be gala night for the Cincinnati Automobile Club, with its president, Dr. C. L. Bonfield, and aiding board of governors doing the honors to members and ardent friends. The Club has been housed in a beautiful booth, suggesting the famous Country Home on Colerain pike, in its broad sweep of wide veranda.

A feature causing no end of delight are the brilliant programs of popular music presented afternoon and evening by Weber's celebrated band.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Winchester Household Has Found Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed, to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change has been brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Winchester readers.

J. T. Gardner, E. Main St., Carlisle, Ky., says: "I had a great deal of trouble from disordered kidneys. In fact, some years ago my case was said to be incurable. During recent years, my back became very weak and lame and ached almost constantly. The worst annoyance, however, was too frequent passages of the kidney secretions. Rheumatic twinges in my hips and loins also bothered me and at times were so acute that it was hard for me to walk. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box and had used them only a short time when I felt a great deal better. Continued use soon entirely relieved me. I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a valuable kidney remedy and worthy of my highest endorsement."

OPEN LETTER

Imagine, if you can, a beautiful, valuable, Kentucky horse hobbling on three legs, with the fourth one broken and dangling. The horse that had been the pride and pet of a family, willing, responsive, even sympathetic when by long use and kind treatment he becomes in a way a diviner of your moods, and in his own inimitable way "uses" a caress that would appeal to any normal human creature.

It is pitiful to see the horse hobble, to see the appeal for help, and yet just what is to be done seems a question. Some one with a supposed spirit of the "humane" says, "Kill the thing and get it out of the way. It is a constant suggestion, an expense to keep alive, no good to any one. Kill it."

A man who likes to "do things," and has learned how, asked for the privilege of trying to restore the broken leg. He swings the horse from the ground in a canvass, strong and fitted to the body, adjusts the broken bone, supports and stays it in position, and when it has knitted sufficiently the horse is lowered until its feet barely touch the ground, as it becomes accustomed to the weight it is lowered little by little until at last dear old "Dobbin" walks, slowly, a little stiff to be sure, but on four legs.

In the course of a few weeks he carries "a boy to mill" just as the "Mill-boy of the Slashes" went. Soon old Dobbin wears his own harness and performs his duties for the family, not quite so gayly, maybe, but most willingly. And: We would ask you, Why? Because one who does things, and was willing, supplied that fourth leg.

The Hospital for Winchester is on three legs, and it is hopping along the best it can, but it really needs one more.

Please allow a rural, from "somewhere" in the county to submit a suggestion.

Why not interest the county people in the Hospital movement. They have their sick, need operations, treatments, physicians, surgeons and nurses just as much as the city people, and it isn't always easy for them to be taken to a Hospital by rail; there isn't always time for extended trips.

The country people are accustomed to "doing things." They begin before day-light—instead of six or seven o'clock—and lose just as little time at noon as possible, in feeding the inner man and the teams. The city man quits at twelve and begins at one, regardless of how much of that time is really needed, and he quits for the day at four, five or six, just as he has engaged to. The country man works not only from "Sun to Sun" but from dawn till after dusk.

We are not knocking, we don't blame the city man, if we were in Rome we would do as the Romans do. It is merely a fact that each in his vocation is "doing things," and the Clark county country men and women are just as anxious for Winchester's success as Winchester is for the success of these country folk. Get that?

Anyway: We see wherein these self same country people would make an admirable "aid to the wounded" if asked to fall in line, and keep step with the hobbling efforts of the Hospital Steed.

What if somebody did say "Kill it, its a useless expense and a drain on the public pocket?" That very somebody will sicken and mayhap be the first to be carried into the Hospital.

Doubtless the question arises as to how to interest the country people. That is easy. Were you ever in a country schoolhouse for a Christmas or a "last day" entertainment? If so, you saw the entire family from the grandparents down to the infants—of each child who was a pupil in the school. And "every old crow thought his crow the blackest."

H. Friedman, Mgr. Jones' Building.

Get some competent citizen, or two or three of them, to plan a series of tableaux, and little playlets, and make every member of the cast—using just as many as possible—country people.

Put it on the stage of Mr. Dinelli's Opera House. Just as soon as Mr. Dinelli reads this suggestion he is sure to call up the King's Daughters, or the Commercial Club and place his house at their service for a date, even a return date it called for. Mr. Dinelli knows there would be flocks of country people who were never in an Opera House, but who would be sure to go again.

The expense need not figure large, for to be real, it should be a reproduction of farm and country routine, and every costume should be one of the wearer's own, as used in every day or Sunday life.

James Oliver, a man who made a big success of the one effort of his life, says, "You benefit yourself only as you benefit humanity"; and again he says, "Use your faculties and you will keep them."

Herbert Spencer said men softening of the brain because they fail to use that organ.

We need the Hospital for self and humanity. Let the town and country use their faculties, thus unite and strengthen them.

Lets not fail because we are too indolent or indifferent to use our brains and muscles.
